TUESDAY MORNING—MAY 14, 1861.

Notice to Daily Subscribers in the Country.

It is useless, perhaps, to repeat it; but, henceforth, no paper in arrears will be forwarded. It will be stopped to the day. It is impossible for us to continue to those careless of their accounts.

Those who fail to receive their paper hereafter, upon taking the trouble to ascertain, will find that their subscriptions are in arrears.

INQUIRY, NO. 278.—At the junction of Cane Run and the Ohio river, eight miles below the city, on the 11th inst., over the body of a man believed to be the second engineer of the ill-fated steamer Union, which burned a few weeks since at New Albany, Ind. The body was much burned on the right side. The right arm, to the elbow, was missing. The right ankle was dislocated, and three pen-knives and two five-cent pieces, found in the pantaloons pockets, were nearly destroyed by the action of the intense heat to which the body had been exposed. The clothing consisted of a red under, and a white overshirt, striped Cassimere pants, brown cotton drawers, long new boots with blue front facing. His age appeared to be between 30 and 35 years, and of medium height and size. Verdict in accordance with the above.

MILITARY GOODS.—STILL AHEAD.—J. L. Deppen, at the mammoth clothing store, has got through from the East a fine stock of Gray cloths, flannels, &c., especially to supply the present demand for uniforms, &c. Companies wishing to be fitted out in the best style will certainly go to J. L. Deppen's, corner of Fourth and Market streets, immediately.

BRUTAL MURDER.—A respectable farmer named Olo Farmer, and his son Michael, a young man, in Monroe county, Ohio, were assaulted with clubs on the 30th ult., by two neighbors named Edwards, father and son, having quarreled over a division line. Farmer was killed and his son very badly beaten.

EDWARD.—Baron de Rothschild and wife, Madame Seller and suite, of Paris, France, and W. H. Brevoort, and servants, of New York, arrived in Cincinnati a few days ago, and took rooms at the Spencer House.

Major Anderson, it is stated, will visit Louisville sometime during this week.

HUNTSVILLE FEMALE INSTITUTE.—We call the attention of our readers to the circular letter of Prof. J. G. Wilson, President of the Huntsville, Ala., Female Institution, in our columns this morning. He claims that Huntsville, Alabama, is so far removed by any point likely to be attacked by hostile troops, that parents may be assured of the safety of their daughters in that locality. Read his letter in advertising column, for particulars.

A Southern paper says that Wigfall is to command a regiment of a thousand picked men, selected from the whole army, so man in the regiment to weigh under 170 pounds, or be under six feet high, or over 60 years of age. Each man will be armed with an Enfield rifle, two Navy revolvers, and a six pound Bowie knife.

KENTUCKY UNION VOTE.—The returns come slowly in—but thirty-two of these counties are heard from. The vote for the Union ticket in these counties exceeds fifty thousand, several thousand more than the combined vote of the same counties last November.

This is a pretty good showing. No one in his sober senses doubts the strong Union feeling in Kentucky. The precipitators, however, still are impatient of evil, and even in the face of such a vote would plunge Kentucky out of the Union. "Oh, judgment, thou hast fled to bruish beasts, and men have lost their reason."

THEATRE.—The benefit of the Hunt Guards last night was not so well attended as had been anticipated, but the performances were far superior to those ordinarily given to this audience. The fine old comedy of the Rivals was presented with great effect. Mr. Dawson's Bob Acres and Mr. Scallan's David were both beautiful pieces of acting. Mr. Hamilton, as Capt. Absolute, and Mrs. Dickson, as Lydia, deserved us of the palmiest days of the Theatre here. In fact, the whole comedy was deservedly successful.

To-night the startling and beautiful German drama of The Bottle Imp is presented for the second time. Mr. Scallan's personation of Willibald is one which is to be remembered for a life time. On Wednesday Mr. West, the scenic artist, takes a benefit, of which we shall have more to say hereafter.

KEEPPON COUNTY COURT—Monday, May 13th.—Andrew Monroe, Judge.

Leiber, Griffin & Co. vs. Dinkelman, Damur to defendants answer sustained and judgment for plaintiff.

Springer & Co. vs. W. F. Fry; judgment for plaintiff for $200.00.

John Roberts, Deputy Assessor for Jefferson county, in the Northern District, returned his book of assessment, which shows 2,028 slaves and 1,047 white slaves over 21 years of age.

J. J. McDevitt was appointed guardian of Thomas Barnes.

The will of Francis M. Wilcox proved and admitted to record; George W. Welsh qualified as Executor; John A. Hays secured.

Joseph M. Rogers qualified as Notary Public of Jefferson county.

Margare Mooney, governess of Daniel Mooney, settled accounts of John S. Sexton, guardian of George W. Chisholm and Lydia J. Chick; J. H. Wright, guardian of Lydia Briscoe, E. D. Briscoe, Sallie W. Briscoe, and Daniel H. Briscoe; W. B. Briscoe, guardian of Julianas Prewett; W. S. D. Megowan, administrator of Mrs. Wilkinson; B. F. Hinck, administrator of Mrs. Bevans; W. S. D. McCawley, and George P. Frasier, administrator of Mary Bennett, died and continued for exceptions.

Littleberry Bachelor qualified as constable in the Oakland district, John B. Bachelor and L. Bachelor, Jr., sureties.

W. D. Scarce qualified as constable in the Fisherville district, Stephen H. Reid security.

Frederick L. Bland qualified as constable in the Blankenbush district, William Burkhardt and John B. Bland sureties.

W. H. Bell qualified as constable in the Middletown district, William Bell security.

Rule against Richard Burke, executor of Sarah Thompson, renewed and returnable on the 20th.

George C. Smoot qualified as constable of the Lower Founds district, John Jones, Jr., surety.

The Court appointed Lindsey Prather and Thomas Goss judges of the election at Spring Garden precinct, in place of D. H. Marston, deceased, and—Dickinsons, removed to Ladians.

GARVIE RIFLES.—See advertisement for meeting to-night.

BOY'S A military company of free negroes are organizing in Memphis.

REB.—anks to our friend Overmyer, of Adams Express Co., for New Orleans papers of the 10th inst.

REB.—The First Ward Home Guards will meet at their Hall this evening, May 14th, at 7 o'clock. A punctual attendance is required.

REB.—The leather dressing establishment of S. Clark, of Cincinnati, was destroyed by fire on Sunday. The loss may be estimated at $7,000, which is covered by insurance.

REB.—We acknowledge the kindness of the messengers of the Adams Express Co. for regularly and promptly furnishing us with papers in advance of the mail from all quarters.

REB.—JERSEY CIRCUIT COURT.—Hon. P. B. Huir, Judge.—The only case before his Honor yesterday was Wesley Owens, charged with killing George Hikes. He was acquitted.

REB.—An exchange very appropriately asks why could not the troops in Washington have been placed in camp, instead of being stationed at the Capitol, where they have done much injury in defacing and daubing the splendid building?

REB.—Our good-looking young townsmen, H. D. Dusell, Esq., has been in Galatin, Tenn., for several days, we learn, drilling the Minute Men. He is an efficient officer, and the Examiner says the Minute Men have improved wonderfully under his skillful training.

REB.—PRINCE ALFRED IN THE WEST INDIES.—H. R. Royal Highness Prince Alfred's tour among the West India islands has been rapid. He has visited Barbadoes, St. Vincent, St. Lucia, Martinique, Guadalupe, Dominica, Antigua, Montserrat, Nevis, St. Kitts, Tortola, St. Thomas, and Jamaica.

REB.—We have shown a single plan of Brooks' seedling having something like a hundred well formed berries, and still blooming. It is but a sample of thousands raised by Mr. Brooks, the strawberry king. Some six miles below the city, on the Nashville Railroad.

REB.—Nineteen hundred sacks of corn, taken from Evansville to Cairo on Friday, were detained at the latter port by military authority, and it is not at all improbable that a total blockade will soon be instituted there as regards anything destined for the Confederate States.

REB.—The Dabontons and Masonic Gem, which expected to get off for Bowling Green on Saturday night, are still lying at the city wharf loaded to their guards with bacon. We learned the cause for their not going was that the insurance companies would not issue policies on the freight.

MARKETS.—The market was quiet, holding former quotations: Men $18, bacon shoulders $2; hams, cananned, 10¢; sugar cured and cananned 10¢ to 11¢. No piles in market. Lard very dull; prime offered at $1¢. Flour—superfine $5 to 25¢ extra; $5 to $6; fancy brands $5 to 7¢. Prive Western Reserve butter 20¢.

REB.—Baron de Rothschild and suite, Madame Seller and suite, of Paris, France, and W. H. Brevoort, and servants, of New York, arrived in Cincinnati a few days ago, and took rooms at the Spencer House.

REB.—Major Anderson, it is stated, will visit Louisville sometime during this week.

FRANKFORT CORRESPONDENCE.

FRANKFORT, May 13, 1861.

Mrs. Hause, Hause & Co.

Gentlemen:—Little was done to day of war interest. The Senate passed a bill suspending the constitution January next, and all process now out is returnable the first of March next. This will, doubtless, pass the House, with not much modification. The military bill is not ready for action yet, or the committee to which all propositions were referred have not reported. The irrepressibles are ready to give six million, or any number of millions; but the majority will be moderate in this respect. One million to purchase arms and with that they shall not be used except in defense of Kentucky in the Union.

The accessionists here don't think the vote on Saturday means anything. They withdraw their ticket so as not to expose their weakness; and they will not be members of Congress, less they make an exposure of it. They are keen to appeal to the people, but when a chance is offered in a lawful way, they back out. There is much to be done.
